THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of New-York. No. 44 Wall street.
This Company, since its organization on the 1st February, 1843 (two years) has issued 1200 policies. The total cash received for premiums and interest on investments, $124,687; yielding a nett capital of $97,273, after paying all losses and expenses. This accumulated capital is rapidly increasing by the 2d and 3d years' premiums now becoming due, and by a vastly extended and growing business. The eminent success and prosperity of this institution has placed it on a strong position. Its capital and resources are now so ample as to inspire confidence in its ability, and insure safety to its members.
The company is organized upon the most improved principles of Mutual Life Insurance, and offers very great advantages to whole Life Policies, or insurances for short periods, if continued till death; whose insurance may run annual responsibilities. At the expiration of every five years from the date of the first policy, (which will make the first division of profits be on the 1st of February, 1848) the whole of the profits will be divided among the insured in proportion to the amount of premiums paid by them, and will remain at their credit as an accumulating fund, payable at the decease of the life insured.
The progress of this institution thus far gives strong ground for anticipating large dividends to the members at the stated periodical settlement, and equal to those of the most distinguished and successful Mutual Companies in Great Britain, where it is well known immense profits have been made.
The importance and utility of Life Insurance is becoming a matter of deep interest with all classes of the community and is now occupying much public attention, and inquiries to make favorable impressions as to the great benefits to be derived from it; as the published annual statement of the insurances by the company conclusively show.

TO THE PUBLIC.

This day closes our labors as Editor of the Milwaukie Sentinel. During the brief period we have been connected with it, we have endeavored to advocate the great principles of the Whig party, and to present a readable and interesting sheet to the patrons of the Sentinel. How far we have succeeded, it ill becomes us to say. Immediately after our return from the East, having determined to devote our time to our profession, we disposed of our interest in the Sentinel, with the understanding that we should continue temporarily connected with it until a successor could be procured. We are happy now to inform the public that Gen. Rufus King, late Assistant Editor of the Albany Evening Journal, will to-morrow enter upon his duties as Editor of the Sentinel. Gen. King has been long and favorably known to the public. He has for years been the Editor of a political paper, and is a tried and true whig. An able and vigorous writer, versed alike in politics and literature, he will make the Sentinel what it ought to be—the first paper in the West. We commend him to our citizens, as worthy of a warm reception.

We clip the following testimonial from the Albany Evening Journal. It is from the pen of Thurlow Weed, the able and talented Editor of that paper:

Our friend and associate, Gen. Rufus King, takes his departure in the Western Cars for Milwaukie, which place he intends to make his future residence, as Editor of the "Milwaukie Daily Sentinel."

We commend Gen. King to the citizens of Wisconsin as a gentleman eminently worthy of a warm and cordial reception among them. If, as we hope, we have friends in that young but rising community, we bespeak from them a hearty welcome for one whom we love as a Brother.

For more than seven years we have lived upon terms of close daily intimacy with Gen. King.—Whether Adjutant General of the State, Editor of the Daily Advertiser, or Assistant Editor of the Evening Journal, he has been in constant political and social communion with us. And we should do injustice to these relations, by neglecting the opportunity which a separation offers, to say that we have never known a man in whose character there is more of the pure ore, and less of the dross, of human nature. The mirror worn openly in his bosom, reflects all the virtues of a pure, warm, guileless heart.

Those with whom Gen. King is about to cast his lot, will find him participating ardently in all the business enterprises of that active, fertile, growing region. Education seems to have stored his mind with knowledge and science, that their advantages and refinements might be imparted to those around him. He will be found diligently but unostentatiously useful in all the Institutions and Associations that elevate and adorn society. And were Milwaukie, instead of the enterprising and intelligent place it is, only emerging from its wilderness state, he would just as readily adapt himself to its condition, and make himself just as useful in giving shape and direction to the elements and impulses out of which Villages and Cities are formed.

Gen. King resigned his Offices of City School Commissioner, of County Common School Superintendent, and his command of the Burgesses' Corps, yesterday. In the discharge of these various duties he has been ever faithful and efficient, always enjoying, in the most pregnant sense of the terms, the confidence and friendship of his associates; and he takes with him, to his "New Home in the West," their warmest wishes for his health, prosperity and happiness.

A Word to the Whigs.

To-day the last Weekly Sentinel previous to the election is issued. A last word, therefore, to the Whigs will not be inappropriate. Next Monday you will be called on to exercise one of the rights guaranteed by our Constitution—one of the perogatives of freemen—to assemble at the polls, and cast your votes for men who are honest, faithful and capable, who are true to the Constitution and the Laws, lovers of our free institutions and who will carry out, in whatever offices or stations they may be placed, the great principles of Republicanism—principles which lie at the foundation of our government—the principles of equality, and of universal liberty. These are the principles for which the Whigs of '76 fought and bled, and the cherished principles of the Whig party at this hour. True Whigs cannot be indifferent to the success of their principles, or to the triumph of a disorganising party in their midst—a party which boasts of its "progressive democracy," and which has progressed nearly to the annihilation of the Constitution and the subversion of the Laws—progressed into Dorrism, Anti-Rentism and Mobocracy—progressed into Repudiation and Log-Treasuryism—to the alarming increase of Executive power and patronage. Not content with the progress it has already made, it is now endeavoring to destroy the present tariff, and make us tributaries to the British crown. Such are the principles and the enemies we have to contend with—principles which if once carried out would destroy all that freemen hold most dear. It is not to be denied that the Whig party is emphatically the conservative party of the country—that it goes for preserving and perpetuating our free institutions as they are. In other countries there is need of revolution. Despotism should be overthrown—the power of kings and aristocrats wrested from them, and the right of the people to make their own laws and govern themselves be established. But not so in ours.—We have obtained what they desire. And the great object in this country is to preserve our Constitution, our laws, and our free institutions, and transmit them unimpaired to our children and our [illegible]

[illegible] the principles of the two parties. Can any Whig or any citizen be indifferent or hesitate for a moment which to support? Shall the conservative principles of the Whigs, or the disorganizing spirit and principles of Locofocoism, triumph? Let every Whig do his duty, and the result is not doubtful.

Who are the men selected to represent you and your principles? Col. James Collins, of Iowa, is the Whig candidate for the Delegacy.—He is a man of whom the Whigs may well be proud. His political career has ever been marked by the enlarged and liberal views of a consummate statesman. Free from cliques and sectional factions, he has given his hearty support to those measures most beneficial to our young and enterprising Territory. He has been long a resident of Wisconsin—was one of the brave defenders of our early settlements, knows the wants of the people, and has those qualifications which fit him in an eminent degree to represent us on the floor of Congress.

The Whig Convention, assembled at Prairieville on the 13th inst., presented the citizens of this District and of Milwaukie county a ticket every way worthy of their support. The candidates are all capable, honest, practical men; and will, if elected, faithfully discharge the duties of their respective offices, and be true to the great and liberal principles of the Whig party. As far as we know, the nominations have given universal satisfaction to the Whigs. In this respect there is a wide difference between the Whig and Locofoco ticket. The more conscientious and honest of the locofocos are dissatisfied with their own ticket, and declare that men have, through intrigue, been nominated, who are reckless demagogues, unprincipled citizens in private life, and totally unqualified to fill the offices for which they have received nominations.

Under these circumstances, it behooves every whig—every voter without a collar, and in whose veins the blood of a freeman courses, to rush to the polls early on the day of election, and vote for the best men and the best principles.

Who had the first Fight?—The following anecdote is going the rounds without credit. It smells in the neighborhood of Boston, and sounds as though the Post had a hand in sending it forth:

Dr. Moses, of the Omnibus Cantabridge, had been so much at old Harvard as to become quite classical. Coming through the Port day after commencement, with a cluster of baccalaureates on the outside, the doctor drew the reins tight thro' the fingers of the left hand, and with a knowing wink of his left eye, said:

"Well, boys, now you've got through college, and know everything, of course, I want you to tell me one thing. Who was it that had the first fight?"

Outsides.—The first fight?—why, it was Cain and Abel.

Doctor.—No it wasn't though.

Outs.—Then maybe you mean David and Goliath, or Sampson, or ——

Doct.—I knew you wouldn't guess. I'll tell you. It was Nihil. He who the one.

Outs.—(Laughing).—Nihil, Doctor! Nihil means nothing. Nothing could not fight.

Doct.—Nothing or something, it's all the same to me. I go by the books and the professors, and they all say in the beginning, before anything was done or thought by any body, Nihil fit.

The boys slid down over the forward wheels, and walked the rest way into town.

From the Cincinnati Times.

Battle between the United States' Troops and the Mexican Advance Guard.

We have seen a letter from the house of James McGregor & Co of N. Orleans, to a gentleman in this city, which says "news had just reached here of a battle between the advance guard of the Mexican force, and a detachment of Gen. Taylor's army, the particulars of which had not been received. A gentleman who arrived this morning in the Simon Kent,' from Louisville, states that Gen. Taylor had sent forward a party of six hundred men, as a corps of observation to the Rio Grande, part of which force was cavalry and artillery. A column of Mexicans, 1500 strong, had crossed a ford above the position of the Americans, at a place called Bejora, and were not discovered until within two or three miles of Col. Gardener's bivouac.

The regulars were immediately formed in order of battle, the artillery, six guns, on the wings, and cavalry in the rear.—An attempt was made to turn the right wing of the right wing of the American line; while in the act of deploying, the artillery was placed in battery, which played with considerable effect upon the Mexican battalion. After a few rounds, a charge was made by the dragoons, and the line of infantry advanced with fixed bayonets and loaded pieces, delivering their fire at point blank distance. The rout was total, and the two Mexican corps seperated and fled in different directions. Col. Gardner, as directed, fell back. The loss of the Americans was 7 killed and 19 wounded. The Mexicans left on the field 82 killed and 172 wounded—many badly by sabre wounds.

A Dueling Prevention.—The New Haven Herald gives the information that an extraordinary correspondence is going on between two gentlemen of the good city of Boston, which began ten years ago with a challenge. Mr. A, a bachelor, challenged Mr B., a married man with one child, who replied that the conditions were not equal, that he must necessarily put more at risk with his life than the other; and he declined. A year afterwards he received another challenge from Mr. A., who stated that he too had now a wife and a child, and he supposed, therefore, the objection of Mr B. was no longer valid.—Mr. B. replied that he had now two children consequently the inequality still subsisted. The next year Mr. A. renewed his challenge, having now two children, also, but his adversary had three. This matter, when last heard from, was still going, the numbers being six to seven, and the challenge yearly renewed.

C. M. Clay.—The Wheeling Times of the 9th, states that C. M Clay is in Richmond, Madison county, Ky., and fast recovering from his indisposition. We notice from other sources that Mr. Clay had left Lexington for the Springs.

NEWS FROM MEXICO.

War News—Gen. Herrara Elected President, Cabinet Appointments, &c.

The Washington Union of the evening of the 8th inst. has received late despatches from Mexico, via Pensacola.

An opinion very generally prevailed at Vera Cruz, according to the last accounts, that Mexico would not formally declare war against the United States, and that the government would be able to realize but a very small proportion of the loan, if any, which had been authorized—so low was the rate of interest.

It is said that in lieu of a declaration, Mexico would carry on hostilities vigorously against Texas; and they talk of making a rush upon her with 25,000 men, but this was generally considered as a sheer fable.

The Mail of the 18th had brought news from the city of Mexico of the election of General Herrera to the Presidency, and the formation of a new Cabinet, consisting of Manuel Penaly-Pena (Minister of Foreign Relations) Pedro Arenya, (Minister of War,) and Fernandez del Castillo, (Minister of the Treasury.

On the 16th of August, Captain Shubrick, commander of the United States ship Saratoga, exchanged salutes with the batteries of Vera Cruz.

Tremendous Meteor.—An extra from the office of the Fayetteville (N. C) Carolinian of the 2nd inst. states, that at about 2 o'clock Monday morning, the citizens were awakened by the sound of a great explosion, somewhat resembling thunder.—To their astonishment, however, the sky was perfectly serene, and on inquiring, it appeared that the cause was a large meteor which "rose in the direction of sunrise, and rapidly moved toward sunset."

It appeared at first, about as large as a bushel measure, and increased in magnitude rapidly as it approached. Just as it, apparently, passed the limits of the town, it burst into fragments with an awful explosion, and was seen no more. Its whole passage did not occupy half a minute.

Many persons who saw this unual sight acknowledged themselves frightened.—One gentleman who was at his window at the time, declares it knocked him backwards like an electric shock, and created a sensation which had not then (four hours afterwards) left him.

Government Appointments.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer demonstrates that in the distribution of the important offices, the West is entirely overlooked, as usual. The result of a geographical examination of the list, shows that not one of the most important offices has been filled from any State northwest of the Ohio river, and that out of 181 Consulates not one is appointed from Ohio. The West has learned who "James K. Polk is," but the Executive does not appear to have heard of the west. Or perhaps he did hear that the Ohio delegates to the Baltimore convention stuck to the Lindenwald Farmer until a pretty considerable row was kicked up, and that the State of Ohio finally voted for the Farmer of Ashland for President.—[Cleve Her.

Bitten by a Rat—Extraordinary case.—A few evenings ago, a young man named Hays, an assistant in the provision store of M. Bancroft, on the corner of Purchase and Federal streets, went home to his house, and, on putting his hand into a chest in the dark, felt it seized sharply. Upon withdrawing it, he found a large rat adhering to him so firmly that he could not shake the creature off until he had killed it. The wound left was inconsiderable, and he thought nothing of the matter till his hand began to swell. Upon calling medical aid, it was found that the virus had spread through his system, and he now lies in a very dangerous state. In the opinion of the physician, amputation would be useless, and he can live but a short time. The swelling in the hand has now subsided and it appears as if withered. [Boston Post.

Arrest of Counterfeiters.—Three counterfeiters were secured at Palmyra last Sunday by deputy U. S. Marshal King of Rochester, while they were in the act of making bogus money. One of the gang escaped with the dies. The press, edging machine and a hundred bogus Mexican dollars were secured, and the prisoners taken to Rochester jail.—[Utica Gaz.

Female thieves in omnibusses is the last invention in New York. They are said to be very skilfull, very demure, but manage so to crowd the omnibusses that the young men, who are their favorite victims, are obliged to sit up very strait so as "not to crowd the ladies." Having got them in a "fix," the ladies proceed to operate—"gently stealing."

Cincinnati Enquirer.—It is stated that the Boroughs have sold the Cincinnati Enquirer establishment to some down east adventurers, who are to have possession soon after the October election. Cause—failure of "bread and butter."

The schooner Marengo loaded with provisions for the Indian payment at Mackinac, encountered a gale in Lake Huron, and was obliged to throw over her deck load, which consisted of flour, to save the vessel. She has since arrived in safety at the port of her destination.

Crayon Sketching.—Those who have not seen the admirable likenesses taken with the Crayon by Mr. Wilson, Artist, should avail themselves of the first opportunity to call at his room, next door to the post office, and see them. So far from being a mere outline, as the name seems to indicate, his likenesses are as large as life, and nearly as perfect as the works of the most finished painters. On visiting his room, yesterday, we were somewhat surprised to see well executed likenesses of several of our most distinguished citizens. They are taken in very few minutes, and at a trifling expense.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

Office of the Daily Sentinel, }
Milwaukie, Sept. 19, 1845. }

The news by the Great Western yesterday, has no material effect upon the price of wheat. Good samples sold at 70 cents. Flour continues firm at $3,50.

Albany, Sept. 10.

The flour market is not very active, to-day, nor holders quite so firm. There are limited sales of prime brands Genesee at 4,75—and some others at 3 and 6c off. We do not alter our quotations; 43 a 44. Oats in the street sell from 40 to 41 cts, and Rye at 5s 4d.

Buffalo, Sept. 12.

The market is quite brisk, though devoid of excitement, with frequent sales. The transactions yesterday embrace about 500 bbls flour, common western brands at $3. In wheat, there is more doing—principally to arrive—9000 bush Racine bro't 86c. Wisconsin wheat is in much favor, and commands the highest prices: but we notice that at some points they have got into the very bad habit of mixing it, which will seriously injure its reputation, if carried to any considerable extent.—About 10,000 bush has been sent to B. Rock to be manufactured.—[Pilot.

Chicago, Sept. 16.

Wheat comes in pretty freely to-day. The ruling rates are 66 cts for good winter wheat, tho' some parcels are taken above that figure, say 68.

Yesterday 9000 bush were taken in and stored at prices from 65 to 70 cts.—[Journal

SAND'S SARSAPARILLA.—The immortal of suffering has been the object of the philanthropist in every age of the world, but true principles of treating disease progressed but slowly for many thousand years, owing to the limited means of acquiring knowledge;—but since the introduction of the printing press and steam engine it may literally be said,—"Light has dawned upon the world," and the man of the nineteenth century possesses advantages which his fathers never did. In this general diffusion of knowledge, remedies have been sought after and discovered in the beautiful storehouse of the vegetable creation exactly calculated to combine with, neutralize and diesel the subtle poison which diffuses itself throughout the general system and prostrates man in the dust. Sand's Sarsaparilla, a purely vegetable preparation, has been thoroughly tested in a variety of diseases, and is from experience, known to be a safe and effectual cure for Scrofula or Enlargement of the Glands, Leprosy, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Eczema, Rheumatism, Palpitation of the Heart and other diseases originating in an impure or depraved state of the blood or derangement of the digestive organs. Original manuscripts of various certificates, letters, of the clergy, Magistrates and laity, all confirming the previous statements, are constantly received, and will be cheerfully exhibited on application. Facts are recorded sufficiently clear and convincing to satisfy the most incredulous of the real merits of this invaluable medicine.

For further particulars and conclusive evidence of its superior value and efficacy, see pamphlets, which may be obtained of agents gratis. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail, by A. B. Sands & Co., Druggists and Chemists, 273 Broadway. For sale also by another remarkable cure of Deafness, performed by Scarpa's Acoustic Oil, in this city Let the case speak for itself.

Albany, Feb. 22d, 1844.

Mr. Guthrie, 4 Stanwix Hall, Maiden Lane: Dear Sir—I owe you an immense debt of gratitude for inducing me to try Scarpa's compound Acoustic Oil. I had been so very deaf for eight years this winter, that I could not hear conversation with an ear trumpet, without the voice being much raised. I have been using the Oil about six weeks in one ear that was far the worst, and with which I was almost totally deaf, and I am happy to inform you that I can now hear ordinary conversation without the trumpet. I feel that I would like to inform the whole deaf community of the astonishing effect of the above medicine I shall be pleased to see any person who may desire to call upon me, to make inquiries concerning my case. Yours, &c.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

THIS troublesome disease is cured by the use of Hull's Utero Abdominal Supporter; from the many certificates in its favor we select only the following of Doctor Ashwell—After its successful trial in Guy's hospital, the following certificate was handed to Dr. Hull's London Agent, for public use:—

13 Devonshire Square, London, Mar. 17, 1838.

"Having tried Dr. Hull's instrument for the cure of Prolapsus and Procidentia Uteri, I am glad to express a highly favorable opinion of its utility In a severe case of entire Procidentia, lately under treatment at Guy's Hospital, it was applied with marked success. Its great superiority over the pessary consists in its affording efficient support to the weak ned abdominal integuments, and in its external application, instead of its introduction into the vagina. I quite think it will accomplish a permanent cure better and more quickly than the pessary. SAMUEL ASHWELL, M. D.

Obstetric Physician, and Lecturer to Guy's London.

Sir Astley Cooper, after the apparatus had been several months under his inspection, gave the following opinion for publication:—

"This apparatus is beautiful for its simplicity; it is an acquisition to practice. The principle of its operation is quite original and perfect. I shall advise its use, and make use of it in my own practice, in preference to anything I have seen."

The above valuable instrument can be found at the Medical store of the undersigned, who is the agent for the sale of the same in Wisconsin.

A GREAT CHANCE

FOR HOTEL KEEPERS.

THE undersigned, who has kept the Milwaukie House for the last three years, is now anxious to retire from the business, as his health will not permit that attention which the avocation requires; he will dispose of his furniture and all his fixtures in the house at a reduced rate for cash. The house is doing the very best of business, and much more could be done were it in the hands of one whose health would permit more energy. If the above property is not disposed of by the first of November, it will be sold at public auction, in parcels to suit purchasers, of which due notice will be given, with a description of furniture, &c. &c. &c. All those who are in want of all kinds of furniture, feather beds, mattrasses, horses, &c. would do well to avail themselves of this sale.

The proprietor would be pleased to have all his old customers and friends call on him—He will use his exertions to please them, and make them at home while he remains in the house. C. WALL, Proprietor.

N B. The situation of the Milwaukie House is on a bluff in the East Ward, where it has a commanding view of the lake, river, city and country, and is capable of accommodating one hundred persons. There is also attached to the house a large and extensive barn. The house can be leased for a term of years at a fair price. Milwaukie, W. T. Aug 26 1845 2in
